Exaltation of the Holy Cross: A Family Tradition worth Revisiting...

In a world where no one understands suffering, the incredible beauty and victory of the Life-Giving Cross makes no sense whatsoever. As Christians, we know that the meaning of the Cross is that through it Christ defeated death, so it is the symbol of our salvation. However, the fact that the Cross of Christ has a profound impact on our daily life is often missed. All humanity is subject to suffering. But in Christ that pain is given meaning and hope. Scripture often talks about the paradox of our faith wherein joy can be borne from sorrow. As St. John Paul II reminds us, in his Apostolic Letter on Human Suffering, "In Christ's cross it is not only that the redemption is completed through the passion; but human suffering is itself redeemed." Christ suffered for us out of Love, in this great love our suffering is linked to love, and in love, life and hope abound.

So proudly display the crucifix of Christ in your home and icon corners! Decorate it and venerate it on this feast (September 14). Everyone suffers, but because of our faith we are not alone. Christ is with us in all our suffering, He endures it with us and in the Cross of Christ the ultimate victory is found. Remind your children that all our suffering can have meaning as we can, in love, unite our sufferings with Christ's.

"To your Cross O Master we bow in Veneration, and we Glorify Your Holy Resurrection!"
