4. To receive the Activity report of the Working Group for the Implementation of Strategic Development in the UGCC till 2020 (August 2018 – July 2019).
5. To end the mandate of the Working Group for the Implementation of Strategic Development in the UGCC till 2020.
6. To express gratitude and recognition to the members of the Working Group for the Implementation of Strategic Development in the UGCC till 2020 for their conscientious work.
7. Modelling ourselves on the first Christian community of Christ's disciples in Jerusalem, of which is said: "Now the full number of those who believed were of one heart and soul, and no one said that any of the things that belonged to him was his own, but they had everything in common" (Acts 4:32), and with demonstrating due care to fostering and strengthening the internal unity of the UGCC:
 - 1) To call upon the clergy, religious and laity in the daily church life and ministry to foster a culture of mutual support and relations with one another, including active usage of contemporary means of social communication.
 - 2) To create a Synodal group for the development of a UGCC pastoral strategy till 2030 with the following members: Metr. Borys Gudziak, Metr. Egeniusz Popowycz, Bishops David Motiuk, Ken Nowakiwski, Teodor Martyniuk, Daniel Kozlinsky, Bohdan Dziurakh.
 - 3) To develop solidarity and exchange of gifts between parishes and eparchies of Ukraine and outside its borders for the purpose of mutual relations, ministry and witness.
 - 4) To support lay movements that desire to build up the unity of the Church, her particular character (pomisnist') and patriarchal structure.
 - 5) To establish on the occasion of the feast of St. Andrew the First-called a Day of Church-wide Prayer for the Father and Head of the UGCC and for special situations in our Church.
 - 6) To ask the Father and Head of the Church to hold conferences with bishops in the metropolias.
 - 7) To ask the metropolitans:
 - I. To strengthen the spiritual unity in prayer of the metropolias through pastoral visits of bishops and eparchies within their metropolias;
 - II. To convoke bishops of the metropolia for Metropolitan Synods or Bishops' conferences;
 - III. To organize common pilgrimages in the metropolias.
- 8) To ask the eparchial bishops:
 - I. To broadly inform the clergy, religious and laity of the eparchy on the legislative acts of the regular Synod of Bishops and engage the proper mechanisms for implementing them in the life of the local Church;
 - II. To establish in the work schedule of their eparchial curias a monthly day of spiritual renewal, prayer and vigils for a common listening to the voice of the Holy Spirit and common prayers for the intention of the Bishop, Eparchial initiatives and pastoral challenges;
 - III. To personally participate in eparchial formation conferences and encounters of clergy and various lay groups in order to foster unity within the local Church under the leadership of the eparchial Bishop;
 - IV. To develop and implement an eparchial pastoral plan;
 - V. To facilitate the domicile presence of pastors on the territory of the parish;
 - VI. To create, where this has not been done, an eparchial pastoral council (see CCEO, can. 272-275) with the involvement of active and responsible laity;
- VII. To create, where this has not been done, an eparchial council for religious communities active on the territory of the Eparchy for deeper communion with religious life communities;
- VIII. To convoke Eparchial Assemblies (sobors) in order to promote a deeper consciousness and the practice of common action at the eparchial level.
- 9) To entrust the clergy:

- I. To guard the internal unity and family spirit of the parish community, notably through daily celebration of the Divine Liturgy, the establishment of communities for the prayerful reading of the Word of God and other fraternities/sororities and prayer movements, as well as through the development of charitable ministry in the parish community;
 - II. To move towards the celebration of the Mysteries of Christian Initiation and the Sacrament-Mystery of Crowning during Sunday or festive Divine Liturgy with the participation of the parish community as prescribed in liturgical books;
 - III. To foster unity between parishes and the eparchial clergy, so that no parish community separate itself from the communion.
- 10) To entrust the Information Department of the Patriarchal Curia:
 - I. To provide for the development of churchwide media resources and means of social communication between the eparchies and metropolias in various languages;
 - II. To complete the creation of a UGCC multilingual information agency in cooperation with the eparchial bishops.
 - 11) To entrust the Ukrainian Catholic University and other intellectual centers, both in Ukraine and beyond its borders, with developing academic research and theological conceptualization of particularity (pomisnist') and the patriarchal structure of the UGCC.
